Are you seeking the opportunity to learn the essential knowledge and skills needed to help people’s lives change from helplessness to hope and to support healthy change and growth?

VLIBTC provides a high quality Chaplaincy Stream which can be your first positive step toward becoming a Chaplain or further equip you for pastoral care within your sphere of influence.

It will prepare you for competency in the two units required by Government to operate in the Public School system in Western Australia. These will also assist your preparation to work in any area of pastoral care or chaplaincy.

The course includes a large component of supervised practical experience in Margaret Court Community Outreach ministering to people from a diversity of needs, cultures, religions, and age groups, along with placement, where possible, in your desired area of chaplaincy.
CMNPPC413 PROVIDE PASTORAL CARE WITHIN AN ORGANISATION

TESTIMONIALS

“The course is preparing us to minister to farmers and rural communities. We are learning how to handle the referral system and work with people of various ages, walks of life and cultures”

TREVOR AND ELLEN – RETIRED COUPLE

“I loved the course and found it very rewarding. It gave me inspiration for youth and for being a part of their progress in life; for seeing them come out of dramas.”
